

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING AT GUILFORD SANATORIUM.

People who have had an idea that the Guilford Sanatorium is a sad and doleful place would have changed their minds, if they could have spent Thursday evening, Sept. 9, in the spacious living room with the patients and a number of visiting friends.

An entertainment had been announced to be given by the "Educational Endeavors" of Guilford County, and all were keen with anticipation, and on hand in good time.

Great was the surprise when the ladies of ward "B" filed in nine of them dressed in school girl costume of a decade ago, while a tenth was robed in the scholastic cap and gown of the college graduate in white instead of the usual black. They gave a very interesting and amusing program, which met with a storm of applause.

Mrs. T. J. Underwood did her part beautifully as Miss Polly Pepper, Mrs. John Riley, as professor, Philosophy Dooser Ph.D. Q.M.B. X.Y.Z., Miss Iva Yeates as Miss Lucinda Sugarsnot, Mrs. Dora Greenway as Miss Amanda Patyoufoot, Mrs. Allen Cooper as Miss Delenda Ann Mashmouth, Mrs. W. D. Sartan as Miss Daisy Dumbell, Mrs. J. A. Long, as Miss May Rattletrap, Mrs. Anita Brown as Miss Susanna a Spoofindyke, Miss Bertha Philips as Miss Samantha Smith, Miss Pearl Auman as Miss Sallie Stepin.

Following is the program rendered:
